11. Regarding M.Sc. project work, the BoS proposed that in case there are more than ten students in M.Sc. course, then in the II semester, each student shall be given a topic for synopsis, on which he/she shall present a seminar. Meritorious students will be selected on the basis of performance, with two/ three students guided by each faculty member, who would carry out research/review work in the III and IV semester. Rest of the students shall opt for a course (theory and/or practical), for which they shall be examined accordingly.

12. BoS suggested that each Ph.D. student shall be guided by two faculty members (one will be the main supervisor and the other one will be co-supervisor). One faculty member shall supervise at the most, two Ph.D. students and also co-supervise not more than another two Ph.D. students.

The meeting concluded with special thanks to Prof. A.S. Ahluwalia (External Expert).
