Name of the Event: Awareness Seminar on "Health Impact of Air Pollution"

Date of the Event: 24 August 2023

Teacher Co-ordinator: Dr. Samriti and Dr. RajBala

Venue: Conference Hall, DAV University

The Gender Sensitization Cell, in collaboration with the NSS Department of DAV University, Jalandhar, organized a seminar titled "Health Impact of Air Pollution" on 24 August 2023. The event was conducted with the Lung Care Foundation, a leading organization committed to creating awareness and action on air pollution and lung health.

The session was graced by eminent speakers, including Dr. Carmin Uppal (Program Manager, Lung Care Foundation), Mr. Rajiv Khurana (CMC, FIMC, Founder Trustee, Lung Care Foundation), and Mr. Ahsanul Haq, who shared valuable insights into the increasing health hazards posed by air pollution.

The primary aim of the seminar was to raise awareness among students, faculty, and local community members, especially women and marginalized sections, about the direct and indirect health implications of air pollution, and to encourage proactive participation in sustainable practices for a healthier future. This aligns closely with the objectives of the Gender Sensitization Cell to ensure inclusive education on environmental health, which disproportionately affects vulnerable groups, including women, children, and the elderly.

Dr. Mamta (NSS Programme Officer and Assistant Professor, Physics) coordinated the seminar on behalf of NSS, while Dr. Raj Bala (Assistant Professor, Environmental Science), who is also the Coordinator of the Gender Sensitization Cell, represented the Cell and delivered a vote of thanks to the guest speakers and participants.

गया कार्यक्रम

उत्तम हिन्दू न्यूज नेटवर्क
जालंधर/विकास शर्मा :
डीएवी यूनिवर्सिटी में हुई जेंडर
एक्वलिटी पर चर्चा में पैनलिस्टों ने
एक समृद्ध भारत बनाने के लिए
महिलाओं के लिए स मान और
समान अवसरों के महत्व पर बल
दिया। विटेन से आई चाइल्ड
साइकोलॉजिस्ट और मेन्टल हेल्थ
काउंसलर डॉ. सखी कौर ने पुरुषों
और महिलाओं के बीच पारस्परिक
सम्मान की आवश्यकता और
व्यक्तिगत मूल्यों को स्वीकार करने
के महत्व पर बल दिया। उन्होंने कहा

डीएवी यूनिवर्सिटी में आयोजित कार्यक्रम में भाग ले गणमान्य।

कि थर्ड जेंडर की समस्याओं पर भी
बात होनी चाहिए। स्प्रिंगबोर्ड लर्निंग
के सह-संस्थापक इंदुजीत सिंह पेंटल
ने लड़कों और लड़कियों दोनों की
समान परवरिश का आह्वान किया
और जोर देकर कहा कि विकास के

लिए महिलाओं की समान भागीदारी
महत्वपूर्ण है। जालंधर में पुलिस
उपायुक्त (डिसेम्प्री) बत्सला गुप्ता ने
पुरुषों द्वारा महिलाओं को वस्तु की
तरह व्यवहार करने और मानसिक या
शारीरिक उत्पीड़न का सहारा लेने के

मुद्दे को संयोजित किया। उसने
आधिकारिक कर्तव्यों में जेंडर
न्यूट्रलिटी के महत्व पर जोर दिया
और लिव-इन संबंधों में होने वाली
क्रूरता के बारे में भी बात की।
विश्वविद्यालय के कुलपति डॉ.
मनोज कुमार ने पैनलिस्टों की
बहुमूल्य अंतर्दृष्टि के लिए उनकी
सराहना की और बड़ी और
अधिक चुनौतीपूर्ण जिम्मेदारियों
को लेने के लिए महिलाओं को
खुद पर और उनकी क्षमताओं पर
विश्वास करने के महत्व पर बल
दिया। इस अवसर पर मास्टरमाइंड
बिजनेस स्कूल, लंदन के कार्यक्रम
निदेशक श्री अहसानुल हक और
विश्वविद्यालय के रजिस्ट्रार डॉ. के
एन कौल सहित विभिन्न गणमान्य

Name of the Event: Blood Donation Camp

Date of the Event: 18 October 2023

Venue: DAV University Campus

Organized by: NSS Department, NCC Wing, Gender Sensitization Cell and Red Ribbon Club

In Collaboration with: Knowledge Villa Integrated Education and Welfare Society

The Gender Sensitization Cell, in collaboration with the NSS Department, NCC Wing, and Red Ribbon Club of DAV University, Jalandhar, successfully organized a Blood Donation Camp on 18 October 2023. The event was conducted in partnership with Knowledge Villa Integrated Education and Welfare Society and aimed to promote the life-saving practice of voluntary blood donation, while fostering a spirit of social responsibility and gender-inclusive community participation.

The camp was inaugurated by Vice Chancellor Dr. Manoj Kumar, who appreciated the noble initiative and commended the youth for their active involvement. Registrar Dr. S. K. Arora also congratulated the donors and acknowledged the dedicated efforts of the NSS unit in organizing such a meaningful and impactful event.

The event saw wide participation from students, faculty, staff members, and local community residents. In total, about 150 volunteers donated blood, while 250 individuals registered for the emergency blood donor database, indicating a strong commitment to community health and welfare.

Dr. Samriti Khosla, Dr. Mamta, Dr. Vidya Pandey, Dr. Lakhmir Singh, Dr. Rekha Gaba, Dr. Rahul Kumar, and Dr. Ahmad coordinated the camp, ensuring smooth operations and medical safety standards. The Gender Sensitization Cell, represented by its Coordinator Dr. Raj Bala (Assistant Professor, Environmental Science), extended active support and helped ensure inclusive and safe participation for all genders, encouraging equal involvement in community welfare activities.

This blood donation camp not only contributed significantly to meeting the blood demand in hospitals but also helped in raising awareness about the critical need for regular, voluntary blood donation. The involvement of both men and women in equal numbers reflected the success of ongoing gender sensitization efforts to promote equitable participation in social and health initiatives.

The Gender Sensitization Cell believes that such community-driven activities are essential in building a gender-sensitive, compassionate, and health-conscious society. The Cell looks forward to organizing more such inclusive health campaigns in collaboration with NSS and other university wings.

Name of the Event: AIDS Awareness Rally on the Occasion of World AIDS Day

Date of the Event: 1 December 2023

Organized by: NSS Unit, Red Ribbon Club, and Gender Sensitization Cell

Report:

To mark World AIDS Day, the Gender Sensitization Cell, in collaboration with the NSS Units and the Red Ribbon Club of DAV University, Jalandhar, organized an AIDS Awareness Rally on 1 December 2023. The event aimed to spread awareness about HIV/AIDS prevention, causes, symptoms, and the importance of early testing and treatment, with an emphasis on eliminating stigma and gender-based discrimination associated with the disease.

The rally began from the university grounds, drawing enthusiastic participation from students, faculty, and staff. The campaign highlighted the global message of "Know Your Status", encouraging individuals to come forward for testing, practice safe behaviors, and support those affected by HIV/AIDS without prejudice.

The event was coordinated by:

- Dr. Vidya Pandey (Programme Officer, NSS & Coordinator, Red Ribbon Club)
- Dr. Raj Bala (Coordinator, Gender Sensitization Cell & Assistant Professor, Environmental Science)

Dr. Samriti Khosla (NSS Coordinator, DAV University) appreciated the active involvement of the volunteers and emphasized the urgent need to dispel myths and misconceptions surrounding HIV/AIDS. She stressed that educational institutions have a responsibility to educate youth about the scientific facts of transmission and prevention, thereby reducing stigma and encouraging testing and treatment.

Objectives of the Rally:

- Raise public awareness about HIV/AIDS prevention and control.
- Dispel common myths and misinformation surrounding HIV transmission.
- Promote gender-sensitive education and equality in healthcare access.

- Encourage individuals, especially the youth, to take responsibility for their health and well-being.

The Gender Sensitization Cell actively supported the initiative, focusing on addressing gender disparities in HIV vulnerability and access to healthcare. Women and marginalized groups often face social barriers to HIV-related information and services; thus, such awareness events serve to bridge the gap through inclusive outreach.

The rally witnessed strong participation from NSS volunteers, faculty members, and students from diverse disciplines. It served as a reminder of the shared responsibility in the fight against HIV/AIDS and the importance of fostering a compassionate, inclusive society.

Name of the Event: Cleanliness Drive at Village Dera Baba Sarwan Dass Ballan

Date of the Event: 30 September 2024

Organized by: Gender Sensitization Cell and NSS

Teacher Coordinator: Dr. Raj Bala (Assistant Professor, Environmental Science), Dr. Samriti Khosla (NSS Coordinator), Dr. Mamta Rani (NSS Program Officer and Member, Gender Sensitization Cell)

Report:

In a joint initiative by the NSS Unit and the Gender Sensitization Cell of DAV University, Jalandhar, a Cleanliness Drive was organized on 30th September 2024 at Village Dera Baba Sarwan Dass Ballan. The program was conducted under the able guidance of Dr. Samriti Khosla (NSS Coordinator) and Ms. Mamta Rani (Program Officer), with the support and coordination of Dr. Raj Bala (Coordinator, Gender Sensitization Cell).

Objective:

The primary goal of the drive was to promote environmental cleanliness and hygiene awareness in rural communities, while simultaneously addressing the gender-sensitive aspects of sanitation and public health. Women and marginalized groups are often the most impacted by poor sanitation, and the drive aimed to highlight the need for inclusive community engagement in such initiatives.

Event Highlights:

1. Street Cleaning:

NSS volunteers cleaned major streets and inner lanes of the village using gloves, brooms, and eco-friendly waste collection materials.

2. Waste Collection:

Special attention was given to collecting plastic, paper, and non-biodegradable materials, and disposing of them responsibly.

3. Community Awareness Campaign:

Volunteers conducted door-to-door interactions and group sessions to spread awareness about:

- Importance of cleanliness
- Waste segregation
- Health implications of unsanitary surroundings

4. Gender-Focused Engagement:

The volunteers, under the guidance of the Gender Sensitization Cell, engaged women and girls of the village, encouraging them to take leadership in maintaining hygienic practices at home and in the community. Issues such as sanitation facilities for women and menstrual hygiene were also briefly addressed during awareness interactions.

Impact of the Drive:

- Visible Improvement in Cleanliness: Noticeable reduction in litter and enhanced visual appeal of the village.
- Empowerment Through Participation: Women and youth of the village actively participated, enhancing community ownership.
- Behavioral Shift: The villagers, particularly the women, expressed renewed interest and commitment in keeping their environment clean and promoting hygienic practices.

Gender Sensitization Cell

Title of the Event: Breaking Barriers: Understanding Gender Equality

Date: 25th February, 2023

Organized by: Gender Sensitization Cell, DAV University

Venue: Room No. ABII-513, Academic Block-II

The Gender Sensitization Cell of DAV University conducted an introductory awareness lecture titled "Breaking Barriers: Understanding Gender Equality" on 25th February 2023. The objective of the event was to sensitize students and faculty about gender issues and to formally introduce the mission and activities of the Cell.

The session was led by Dr. Raj Bala, Coordinator of the Cell. During the lecture, Dr. Bala highlighted:

- The roots and persistence of gender stereotypes
- The evolution of women's rights, from historical struggles to modern legislative reforms
- The need for gender equality in educational institutions and the broader society

The lecture was well-attended by students and faculty members from multiple departments, who also engaged in an interactive Q&A session. The event fostered a thoughtful dialogue on gender inclusivity and the role of educational institutions in promoting equality.

This session marks the beginning of many more initiatives that the Gender Sensitization Cell plans to undertake in the upcoming academic year to build awareness and cultivate a respectful and safe environment for all.

Participants: Students, NSS Volunteers, Citizens from Karari Village

Teacher Coordinator: Dr. Raj Bala (Assistant Professor, Environmental Science)

Session Overview:

The Gender Sensitization Cell in association with the NSS Unit of DAV University, Jalandhar, hosted an Online Awareness Session titled "Food, Planet, Health" on 14th October 2024 in collaboration with Vegan Outreach India. The primary objective was to create awareness about how food choices impact personal health, the environment, and societal equity, with a gender-sensitive lens.

Key Highlights:

1. Introduction to Veganism:

The session commenced with an informative presentation by Ms. Nija, who introduced the participants to the ethical, environmental, and health foundations of veganism. She emphasized the role of conscious food choices in building a just and sustainable world.

2. Environmental Responsibility:

Participants learned about the gendered impact of environmental degradation caused by industrial animal agriculture. The discussion included how resource scarcity, climate change, and biodiversity loss disproportionately affect women and marginalized communities.

3. Health & Nutrition:

The session focused on the health benefits of a plant-based diet, such as reduced risk of chronic illnesses and improved immunity. Common myths about protein and iron deficiency in vegan diets were addressed, making the content inclusive and practical for all genders.

4. Gender Sensitization Linkages:

- The speaker highlighted the gendered dimensions of food systems, including women's roles in household nutrition decisions and agricultural labor.
- The dialogue encouraged women and rural participants, especially from Karari village, to become advocates for healthier, low-cost, and plant-based diets in their communities.

5. Interactive Q&A Session:

Participants raised questions related to adopting vegan diets in Indian households, overcoming cultural challenges, and affordable plant-based food options. There was notable enthusiasm among rural attendees and NSS volunteers alike.

Conclusion:

The online session effectively combined awareness-building on veganism with gender sensitivity, reinforcing the idea that food choices are not only environmental or health-related decisions but
