

REGIONAL CLUBS

Regional Clubs celebrate the cultural diversity of our student community by bringing together individuals from similar linguistic and regional backgrounds. These clubs serve as platforms for cultural exchange, support systems for students away from home, and spaces to organize regional festivals, food fests, and language workshops. They promote unity in diversity and foster inclusiveness within the campus environment.

1. Punjabi Virsa Club
2. Himroots Club
3. Kashmiriyat Club
4. Haryanvi Heritage Club
5. Rangilo Rajasthan Club
6. Sanskriti Gujarat Club
7. Bihar Sanskritik Sangh

Punjabi Virsa Club

The Punjabi Virsa Club in DAV University serves as a dynamic cultural society dedicated to celebrating and preserving the rich heritage, traditions, and arts of Punjab. "Virsa" translates to "heritage" in Punjabi, and these clubs play a pivotal role in introducing students—especially those from outside Punjab—to the vibrant culture of the region. The club organizes a variety of events such as cultural festivals, traditional dance and music performances, workshops, and competitions that provide students with opportunities to connect with and express Punjabi culture. Activities often include folk dances like Bhangra and Giddha, craft-making sessions, Punjabi poetry recitals, and food festivals. These events not only showcase the talent of Punjabi students but also engage those from diverse backgrounds, fostering cultural exchange and understanding. Through such initiatives, the club creates a sense of community among students, promotes inclusivity, and encourages appreciation for cultural diversity within the university environment. It also helps students develop skills in leadership, event management, and creative expression while strengthening their connection to their roots.

Faculty Coordinators

Dr. Ranjodh Singh, Assistant Professor, Civil Engg.

Ms. Sakshi, Assistant Professor, School of Law & Legal Studies

Mr. Jobanpreet Singh, Assistant Professor, School of Law & Legal Studies

Student Coordinators:

Simranjit Singh Shergill, Mtech (CSE)

Jasleen Kaur, B.A.LL.B (Hons.)

Himroots Club

The Himroots Club at DAV University functions as a cultural and social forum aimed at preserving and promoting the rich traditions and heritage of Himachal Pradesh. It serves as a hub for students from the region to connect with one another, while also offering others a window into Himachali culture. The club organizes various activities such as traditional dance and music performances, cultural festivals, food fairs, and workshops on local crafts and art forms. These events not only help students from Himachal feel at home, but also foster cross-cultural understanding among the wider student body. Through its initiatives, the Himachal Club builds a strong sense of community, encourages inclusivity, and provides opportunities for creative expression and personal development. By engaging in club activities, students can develop skills in leadership, teamwork, and event organization, all while deepening their appreciation for the customs and values of Himachal Pradesh.

Faculty Coordinators:

- Ms. Monika , Assistant Professor, English Department
- Ms. Perna , Assistant Professor, Law & Legal Studies

Student Coordinators:

- Kanika B.A.LL.B (Hons.)FYIC
- Palak Rana B.A.LL.B (Hons.)FYIC

Kashmiriyat Club

A Kashmiriyat Club in DAV University typically functions as a cultural and social platform dedicated to promoting and preserving the rich heritage of Kashmir among students. It organizes various events such as traditional music and dance performances, language workshops, and poetry recitals to celebrate Kashmiri culture and literature. The club often hosts food festivals featuring authentic Kashmiri cuisine, along with celebrations of regional festivals like Navreh and Herath. Besides cultural promotion, the club raises awareness about Kashmir's history and socio-political issues through discussions and seminars. It also provides a support network for Kashmiri students, helping them connect and adjust to university life. Additionally, the club encourages intercultural exchange by collaborating with other student groups, fostering unity and mutual respect within the campus community. Through art exhibitions and handicraft workshops, it further showcases Kashmir's traditional crafts, enriching the university's multicultural environment.

Faculty Coordinators:

- Ms.Komal Gupta, Assistant Professor, Law & Legal Studies
- Ms.Laila Nargis, Assistant Professor, English

Student Coordinators:

- Meenakshi, B.A.LL.B(Hons)

Haryanvi Heritage Club

A Haryanvi Club in DAV University serves as a vibrant platform dedicated to promoting and preserving the rich cultural heritage of Haryana among students. It organizes a variety of events such as traditional dance and folk music performances, art exhibitions, and workshops to celebrate Haryanvi traditions. The club also promotes the Haryanvi language through poetry recitals and storytelling sessions. Food festivals featuring authentic Haryanvi cuisine like Bajra Khichdi and Lassi are common, helping students experience the region's culinary culture. Additionally, the club raises awareness about Haryana's history, festivals such as Teej and Lohri, and socio-political issues through seminars and discussions. It provides a support network for students from Haryana, helping them adjust to university life and fostering a sense of community. By collaborating with other cultural clubs, the Haryana Club encourages intercultural exchange, enriching the campus's multicultural environment and promoting unity among diverse student groups.

Faculty Coordinators:

- Ms Pallavi, Assistant Professor, CBME

Student Coordinators:

- Mohit Kumar, Department of Sports & Physical Education
- Nishtha Behal, CBME

Rangilo Rajasthan Club

A Rajasthan Club in a university serves as a lively platform dedicated to celebrating and preserving the rich cultural heritage of Rajasthan among students. It organizes various events such as traditional Ghoomar dance performances, folk music sessions, and celebrations of major festivals like Teej and Diwali to showcase the vibrant traditions of the state. The club also hosts food festivals and cooking competitions featuring authentic Rajasthani dishes like Dal Baati Churma and Gatte ki Sabzi, allowing students to experience the region's unique culinary culture. Additionally, workshops on traditional crafts such as block printing and pottery, along with competitions in folk arts and traditional sports, engage students and promote cultural learning. By collaborating with other cultural clubs and participating in inter-university festivals, the Rajasthan Club fosters intercultural exchange and unity among diverse student groups. Some clubs also undertake community service initiatives, contributing to social welfare. Overall, the Rajasthan Club enriches the university's multicultural environment by fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation of Rajasthani culture.

Faculty Coordinators:

- Dr. Naveen Bilandi, Associate Professor, CSE

Student Coordinators:

- Sahil Bishnoi, B.ALL.B (HONS)
- Kanishq , B.ALL.B (HONS)

Sanskriti Gujarat Club

A Gujarat Club in a university acts as a vibrant hub for celebrating and promoting the rich cultural heritage of Gujarat among students. The club organizes various cultural events, including traditional dance performances like Garba and Dandiya Raas, as well as music sessions that highlight Gujarati folk traditions. It also celebrates important festivals such as Navratri and Uttarayan with enthusiasm, involving the wider student community in these lively festivities. The club often hosts food festivals and cooking competitions featuring popular Gujarati cuisine like Dhokla, Thepla, and Undhiyu, giving students a taste of the region's culinary delights. Additionally, workshops on Gujarati arts and crafts, such as bandhani and block printing, help preserve and spread awareness of these traditional skills. By collaborating with other cultural organizations and participating in inter-college cultural fests, the Gujarat Club encourages intercultural exchange and fosters unity among diverse student groups. Through these activities, the club plays an important role in enriching the university's cultural landscape and promoting a deeper understanding of Gujarat's unique cultural identity.

Faculty Coordinators:

- Ms. Saruchi, Assistant Professor, Department of Vedic Studies

Student Coordinators:

- Randhir Singh, M.A. English
- Harshika Pahuja , MBA

Bihar Sanskritik Sangh

A Bihar Club in a university acts as a vibrant platform to celebrate and promote the rich cultural heritage of Bihar among students. It organizes events showcasing traditional music and dance forms like Bidesia and Jat-Jatin, along with celebrations of important festivals such as Chhath Puja. The club also hosts food festivals featuring authentic Bihari dishes like Litti-Chokha and Sattu, allowing students to experience the region's unique culinary flavors. Additionally, it conducts workshops and discussions on Bihari language, literature, and history to foster awareness and pride in Bihar's cultural legacy. By collaborating with other cultural clubs and participating in inter-university events, the Bihar Club encourages intercultural exchange and unity, enriching the university's multicultural environment.

Faculty Coordinators:

- Bindia Daroch, Assistant Professor, CBME

Student Coordinators:

- Hanni Kumar, B.ALL.B (HONS)
- Mitali, B.SC (H) Agriculture

Glimpses Of Activities Conducted By Various Regional Clubs

Teej Fest Organized in Coordination with Punjabi Virsa Club

Exhibition by Himroots Club showcasing their Rich Culture of Himachal Pradesh

Chhath Pooja Organized by Bihar Club on occasion of

Exhibition by Gujarat Club showcasing the diverse culture of Gujarat

Rajasthan Club organized Fashion Show & Live Classical Night

Kashmiriyat Club Performing at an event

Dancing & Painting Competition
Organized by Haryana Club