Agenda:

1. Proposal to organize a seminar/workshop on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) for students and faculty members.

Proceedings:

The meeting of the Research Ethics Committee was convened at 2:30 PM under the chairmanship of Dr. Keshav Walia. He welcomed the committee members and opened the discussion on the agenda item.

1. Organization of a Seminar/Workshop on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR): Dr. Ashutosh Gupta introduced the importance of organizing a seminar/workshop focused on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) for students and faculty members. He emphasized that understanding IPR is crucial for academic and research integrity, especially in the context of innovation, patenting, copyrights, and protecting research outputs. The committee discussed the need for students and faculty to be educated on topics such as patents, copyrights, trademarks, and how to safeguard intellectual creations. Dr. Praveen Guleria suggested inviting legal experts and professionals in the field of IPR to deliver lectures and workshops. The committee unanimously agreed that the event would benefit the entire academic community and enhance awareness of the legal and ethical dimensions of intellectual property. It was decided that the seminar/workshop would be planned in collaboration with the University's Legal Cell and held within the current academic semester. Dr. Ashish Sharma recommended that the workshop include interactive sessions where participants can discuss specific research scenarios related to IPR.
