THIS NON-DISCLOSURE & CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT is made and entered into this 28th March, 2023

By and Between"-

Maruti Suzuki India Limited having its Registered Office at 1, Nelson Mandela Road, Vasant Kunj, New Delhi (India) hereinafter referred to as "MSIL" (which expression unless repugnant to the context shall mean and include its successors and assigns) of the ONE PART; and

DAV University having its Registered Office at Jalandhar-Pathankot National Highway (NH44), Jalandhar, Punjab (India) and hereinafter referred to as "DAV UNIVERSITY" (which expression unless repugnant to the context shall mean and include its successors and assigns) of the OTHER PART.

Whereas MSIL and DAV UNIVERSITY are in the process of consultations and discussions for exploring business opportunities related to a possible arrangement between them.

And whereas it is anticipated that during the process described above, and during the performance of the definite services contract, if any, executed between the parties it may be necessary for the parties to exchange certain confidential and proprietary information in written, oral and/or physical/sample form (collectively "Confidential Information")

Accordingly, the parties agree as follows:

1. Confidential Information: Confidential Information shall mean any information disclosed by one party (hereinafter the "Disclosing Party") to the other (hereinafter the "receiving Party"), either directly or indirectly, in writing, by inspection of tangible objects (including, without limitation, documents, prototypes, samples, media, documentation, discs and code). Confidential Information shall include, without limitation, any materials, trade secrets, know-how, formulae, processes, algorithms, ideas, strategies, inventions, data, network configurations, system architecture, designs, flow charts, drawings, proprietary information, business and marketing plans, financial and operational information, and all other non-public information, material or data relating to the current and /or future business and operations of the Company and analysis, compilations, studies, summaries, extracts or other documentation prepared by the Receiving Party based on information disclosed by the Disclosing Party. Confidential Information may also include information disclosed to the Receiving Party by third parties on behalf of the Disclosing Party. In order to treat any information as Confidential Information, the Disclosing Party, when sharing of such information in paper or electronic form, shall clearly mark such information as confidential. When Confidential Information is shared orally, it shall be reduced in writing (in paper or electronic form) within one week of sharing of information, and shall be clearly marked as confidential. Unless any information shared by Disclosing Party is marked as confidential in the said manner, it shall not be treated as Confidential Information for the purpose of this Agreement.

Scope: The Disclosing Party retains the sole and exclusive ownership and intellectual property rights in the Confidential Information and no license or any other interest is granted to the Receiving Party unless agreed to by the Disclosing Party in writing.

3. Term: The term of this Agreement and obligations contained herein shall continue without any limit of period.

Restrictions: The Receiving Party undertakes to protect the Confidential Information with the same degree of care as it uses to protect its own Confidential Information, but in all events will use at least a reasonable degree of care to protect the Confidential Information received by it under this Agreement. In addition to such degree of care, the Receiving Party agrees not to in any way disclose, copy, reproduce, modify, use (except as permitted under this Agreement), or otherwise transfer the Confidential Information to any other person or entity except Suzuki Motor Corporation without obtaining prior written consent from the Disclosing Party. The Receiving Party's employees who have access to the Confidential Information on a need to know basis will be bound by all the terms of this Agreement and shall execute non-disclosure agreements as restrictive as this Agreement covering the Confidential Information. The Receiving Party shall not reverse engineer, disassemble or decompile any prototypes, software or other tangible objects which embody the Confidential Information and which are provided to the Receiving Party hereunder. Notwithstanding above, the Confidential Information may be shared by the Disclosing Party with the personnel, suppliers and subcontractors of the Receiving Party only insofar as it is required for such Purpose, and the Receiving Party shall enter into an agreement with such supplier or subcontractor under which such supplier or subcontractor undertakes to keep confidential, and not to use for any other purpose, any Information disclosed to it by the Receiving Party and shall take such other steps as may be reasonably required to cause the personnel, suppliers and subcontractors of the Receiving Party to safeguard the confidentiality of Information. Further the Receiving Party, at Disclosing Party's request, return all originals, copies, reproductions and summaries of Confidential Information and all other tangible materials and devices provided to Recipient as Confidential Information, or at Disclosing Party's option, certify destruction of the same.

5. Exceptions: (1) The obligations and restrictions herein shall not apply to Confidential Information that falls within any of the following exceptions, provided the Receiving Party proves and produces credible written evidence to establish one of the exceptions:

- (a) the information is or becomes part of the public domain without breach of this Agreement;
- (b) the information is lawfully in the possession of the Receiving Party prior to a disclosure and not subject to an existing agreement between the parties;
- (c) the information is independently developed by the Receiving Party, completely apart from the disclosures hereunder;
- (d) the information is received from a third party who lawfully acquired such information without restriction, and without a breach of this Agreement, by the Receiving Party and/or
- (e) the information is released pursuant to a binding court order or government regulation, provided that the Receiving Party delivers a copy of such order or action to the Disclosing Party.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this agreement to the contrary, Parties acknowledge that MSIL shall at all times be entitled to share/disclose any information received from DAV University with Suzuki Motor Corporation and there will be no restriction on any such disclosure.

No Obligation: Nothing herein shall obligate the parties to disclose any information under this Agreement or to proceed with any transaction between them, and each party reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to terminate the discussions contemplated by this Agreement concerning the business opportunity.

Non-solicitation: (a) The parties agree that neither party shall solicit or employ the personnel of the other party who are involved in negotiations or rendering any services to the other party under this Agreement, for a period of one year from the date from which such personnel cease to be involved in such negotiations/rendering services, without obtaining the prior written consent of the other party.

(b) Neither party shall approach any of the customers of the other party, who has been exposed to the Receiving party by the Disclosing party, for a period of 1 year from the date of this Agreement, for providing products, software or services similar to the range of products, software or services of the other party, which are currently evaluated in respect of business opportunities, without obtaining the prior written consent of the other party.

Enforcement: The Receiving Party also agrees that all the provisions of this Agreement shall be specifically enforceable by the Disclosing Party against the Receiving Party and its agents and/or representatives by injunctive and other relief. All the provisions hereof shall survive the end of term of this Agreement if either party breaches any provision within the time period specified in Section 3.

Compensation: The Receiving Party agrees that monetary damages would be inadequate compensation to the Disclosing Party in the event the Receiving Party breaches any provision of this Agreement. Therefore, the parties agree that in the event of a breach or threatened breach of confidentiality, the Disclosing Party shall be entitled to specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy for any such breach or anticipated breach.

MOU between INTEL and the DAV UNIVERSITY

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

This Memorandum of Understanding (herein referred to as "MOU") is effective as of 21st Nov 2022 entered between Dav University, having its Registered Office at National Highway, Pathankot - Jalandhar Rd, Jalandhar, Punjab 144001 (hereinafter referred to as "Institute" which expression shall, unless it be repugnant to the subject or context thereof, shall deem to mean and include its successors and assigns) of the ONE PART.

AND

Intel Technology India Private Limited, a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, having its Registered Office at 23-56P, Devarabeesanahalli, Varthur Hobli, Outer Ring Road, Bengaluru-560 103, Karnataka (hereafter referred as "Intel")

Intel and Institute may each be referred to as a "Party" or collectively as the "Parties."

BACKGROUND

- A. Intel has a program known as Intel® Unnati – data centric Initiatives for emerging technology ("Program") under which EdGate Technologies Pvt. Ltd, an Intel approved vendor, may deploy Intel recommended hardware and software infrastructure but however Institute can decide on the final infrastructure required for Intel® Unnati Lab, related training curriculum on Intel® architecture (IA) and set up state of the art Intel® Unnati Lab based on Intel® architecture, at various higher education institutes including the Institute ("Program");
- B. Intel wishes to state in the MOU about the Program, management of this Program by vendor and Intel's relationship with the Institute and vendor.
- C. Institute agrees with Intel to collaborate in the Program and engage with vendor as described in this MOU.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties have come to the following understanding:

General Understanding regarding this MOU:

1. Purpose of the MOU: The purpose of this MOU is to specifically bring to the attention of the Institute the relationship of Intel with the Program and how the Program is managed by vendor. This MOU will also serve as a framework to describe Intel's relationship with the Institute and with vendor. Intel and vendor are independent contractors. Vendor does not have any right or authority to assume or create any obligations on behalf of Intel or to bind Intel to any contract, agreement or undertaking with the Institute. Nothing in this MOU shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture, employment or agency relationship between Intel and vendor. Upon the execution of this MOU, Institute and vendor may discuss and negotiate the potential transaction(s) relating to the Program including setting up of Intel® Unnati Lab in greater detail, which may include entering into binding agreements for the implementation of the Program.

2. Non-Binding Nature of this MOU: The Parties agree that this MOU is non-binding and the terms of this MOU are statements of intent only. This is not a binding agreement between the Parties except for the obligations provided under Sections 3 through 10 below, which are binding on the Parties. The Program is conducted by Intel on a non-binding basis. Intel has the right to cancel the Program and its related activities at any time at Intel's sole discretion without providing any reason to the Institute. No legally binding agreement shall exist until both parties have negotiated, prepared and executed separate individual written agreement(s) establishing the binding obligations of the Parties as approved by each Party's management and legal entities.

3. Confidentiality: Except as may be otherwise stated in MOU, or as may be required by law, the Parties agree that they shall seek and receive the express prior consent of the other Party before they disclose to the public or to any third party the existence of this MOU, any confidential information provided to each other or the relationship described herein.
4. Expenses: Institute will be responsible for its own expenses in connection with all matters relating to the Program. All monetary transactions for conducting the Program shall be between vendor and the Institute. There is no funding from Intel for vendor to carry out the objectives of or to implement the Program at the Institute. Vendor will obtain its own funding from the Institute who wish to set up the state of the art Intel[®] Unnati Lab and implement the Program. In no event shall Intel be liable to the Institute for any fault, mismanagement, acts, omissions or damages of any kind whatsoever based upon or arising out of vendor's performance of or failure to carry out the Program activities as agreed with the Institute.
5. Non-Exclusivity: Nothing in this MoU shall mean or shall be construed to mean that any of the Party is at any time precluded from having similar arrangements with any other person or third party, subject always to maintaining confidentiality obligations stated herein.
6. Limitation of Liability: In no event shall Intel have any liability to the Institute, students or any other third party, for any indirect, incidental, speculative, special or consequential damages, based upon the breach of contract, tort or otherwise, arising out of this MOU, or for the failure of vendor to ultimately complete the Program activities as agreed between vendor and the Institute.
7. Warranties Disclaimed: ALL DELIVERABLES, MATERIALS AND PROGRAM COLLATERALS, ETC. PROVIDED BY INTEL ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND. INTEL SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND ANY WARRANTY AGAINST INFRINGEMENT OF ANY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHT OF ANY THIRD PARTY.
8. No Intellectual Property Rights Granted: This MOU does not grant the Institute any license or other rights to any trademarks, logos or other intellectual property of Intel, and use of any intellectual property of Intel will be governed by a separate license agreement.
9. Term and Termination. This MOU will continue in effect until it is terminated by one of the Parties. Either Party may terminate this MOU at any time for any or no reason upon 30 days written notice to the other Party. In the event Intel cancels the Program and/or its related activities, this MOU shall stand automatically terminated and Intel may provide a written notice to the Institute to this effect. The obligation arising under Sections 2 to 13 of this MOU will survive termination.
10. Governing Law and Jurisdiction: This MOU will in all respects be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Republic of India. Each party hereby agrees to the sole jurisdiction of the courts of Bengaluru for all disputes and litigation arising under or relating to this Agreement.
- 11 Independent Contractors: The Parties are independent contractors, and no agency, partnership, joint venture or employee-employer relationship is intended or created by this MOU. Neither Party will make any warranties or representations on behalf of the other.
12. Entire Understanding; Amendment; Assignment: This MOU sets forth the entire and final understanding and agreement of the Parties, and supersedes any and all oral or written agreements or understandings between the Parties, as to the subject matter hereof. No amendments or modifications shall be effective unless in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both Parties. The waiver of a breach of any provision of this MOU will not operate or be interpreted as a waiver of any other or subsequent breach. No right, duty or obligation under this MOU may be assigned, delegated, factored or subcontracted in any manner by either Party without the other Party's prior

- Functional Activities under MoU:
 1. As part of this collaboration, two courses from the Cambridge Interchange series, Interchange 2 and Interchange 3, are being offered under the Ability Enhancement Courses by the Department of English. These courses, aimed at improving communication and language proficiency are made available to all disciplines, providing students with the opportunity to enhance their communication and language skills. The majority of departments in undergraduate programmes at DAV University are currently incorporating these courses in Semesters I and II, furthering the objectives of NEP 2020 by enhancing and promoting interdisciplinary learning contributing to the policy's focus on holistic education. This widespread inclusion was intended to ensure that students from multiple academic backgrounds had access to internationally recognised English language training.
 2. A workshop on the Cambridge Teaching, Learning and Assessment (Interchange 5th Edition Level 2) was conducted by the Department of English at DAV University, in collaboration with Cambridge University Press on September 30, 2023. The aim of the workshop was to equip English teachers from various schools and colleges with the skills required to effectively implement the Cambridge Interchange courses, with a focus on incorporating 21st-century teaching methods. The workshop was attended by English educators from various institutions.

1. Cambridge Interchange 2 (Semester I)

This course primarily focuses on developing intermediate language skills, emphasizing listening, speaking, reading, and writing. The objective is to help students communicate more effectively in both academic and professional contexts. Through various exercises, students are encouraged to actively participate in dialogues, improve grammar usage, and enhance vocabulary.

2. Cambridge Interchange 3 (Semester II)

This course is designed to further advance students' language abilities. Building on the foundation laid in Interchange 2, it focuses on complex language structures and situational usage, preparing students for higher-level conversations, presentations, and professional communication. The emphasis is placed on interactive learning, where students engage in discussions, debates, and role-plays to foster confidence in English usage.

4. Obligations of DAV

DAV hereby agrees that it shall:

- a) Enrol students within respective courses at the start of license date and ensure that the full amount is collected at the time of such enrolment from the student. The list of students enrolled can be shared with L&T EduTech and DAV shall ensure that the correct name is printed on the certificate on successful completion.
- b) Provide a point of contact for all administrative and support functions to ensure smooth implementation of the courses.
- c) Periodic review to ensure on track implementation and sharing feedback with L&T EduTech as soon as possible and any necessary action required.
- d) Assign faculty members to be trained in the operation and maintenance of the CoE as detailed in the Annexure – COE.
- e) Provide necessary support for the establishment and operation of CoE in DAV's campus.
- f) Ensure the timely payment of invoices as mentioned in clause 3 (c), (e).
- g) To ensure safe custody and protection of the Lab and its equipment at the DAV's premises
- h) To ensure proper handling and upkeep of the – EV lab and equipment as per the lab manual, user /operating manual and instruction and documentation given either by L&T EduTech or by the Technology partner of L&T or by both.
- i) To intimate Technology partner and L&T EduTech for any malfunctioning immediately after its detection in writing or email of any defects or malfunctioning as promptly as possible after discovery thereof. The communication must state the nature and extent of the defects
- j) To take appropriate insurance cover of the lab equipment to protect them against Fire, Explosion, self-ignition, Accident, Theft and Burglary, Acts of Peril

5. Obligations of L&T EduTech

L&T EduTech hereby agrees that it shall:

- a) Support in recommending the right courses as per the learning and career outcomes evinced for the students.
- b) Ensure courses are live and available to students during the validity of the licenses.
- c) Share schedule of course delivery as agreed with DAV.
- d) Provide SMEs for virtual or in-person classes as agreed for course wise delivery.
- e) Conduct assessments and evaluations, course wise and issue certificate on successful completion of the courses.
- f) Provide technical support to all enrolled students of DAV regarding the online platform through which the courses are offered
- g) Establish the CoE in E- mobility and Electric Vehicles in DAV's campus with support of its Technology Partner for delivery of Program in E- Mobility and Electric Vehicles as detailed in Annexure, based on clause 3(f).
- h) Facilitate placement opportunities for the students successfully completing the CollegeConnect program. Placement for the learner shall be based on students meeting the required eligibility criteria for hiring.
- i) To upskill two faculty members of the DAV in EV thereby enabling them to conduct experiments and maintain the EV requirements with proper care at the COE

- j) To provide the Lab manuals, experimental procedure and documentation for the trained faculty member to understand and operate on the equipment as per the operating instruction manual
- k) To co-ordinate with the Technology Partner for proper upkeep and maintenance of the lab and its equipment.
- l) L&T EduTech shall facilitate the servicing and repairing of the equipment through its Technology Partner for issues arising from defects in the equipment
- m) Technology partner of L&T EduTech shall make routine inspection of the equipment of periodic basis and maintain the equipment supplied by them
- n) L&T EduTech and its technology partner shall not be liable for repairs required due to damages caused by the DAV, including but not limited to negligence, mishandling, power supply fluctuations, accidental damage, unauthorized modifications, or failure to follow operational guidelines. Warranty clauses are not applicable under the aforesaid circumstances.

6. Representation and Warranties

- a. The Parties hereby represent and warrant to each other that:
 - i. entering and performing of this Agreement does not and will not conflict with any law, governmental rule/regulation or cause a breach of any other agreement to which either of the Parties is a party.
 - ii. it is duly organised and validly existing entity, and it has the power and authority to enter into and perform this Agreement and the signatory to this Agreement is duly authorised by it.

7. L&T Logo usage and Co-branding

- a. DAV will be provided with the option of using co-branded materials in its marketing campaign, certificates, student acquisition programs, etc., L&T EduTech shall provide DAV with the marketing material and information and DAV shall only use such material and information.
- b. DAV may utilize L&T EduTech's logo and brand material (collectively referred to as the "Brand Material") subject to the payment of license fees against the first invoice raised by L&T EduTech as set out in clause 3 above. It is hereby clarified that DAV shall be entitled to use L&T EduTech's Brand Material subject to the timely settlement of any and all subsequent invoices raised by L&T EduTech.
- c. L&T EduTech reserves the right to revoke the consent granted to DAV to use its Brand Material at any time during the term of this Agreement. Upon such revocation DAV shall cease using L&T EduTech's Brand Material with immediate effect.
- d. Usage of L&T EduTech's Brand Material shall be subject to the brand guidelines and approval of marketing or promotional material by L&T EduTech.

8. Term and Termination

- a. This Agreement shall be with effect from the date of signing hereto and shall remain valid for a period of five years unless terminated earlier.
- b. This Agreement may be terminated by either of the Parties by giving one month written notice to the other Party.

 DAV University, Jalandhar

- c. Either Party ("Aggrieved Party") shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement forthwith by issuance of a written notice to the other Party ("Breaching Party") due to a (a) breach of the terms and conditions of this Agreement including non-adherence to the stipulated timelines, failure or refusal to pay the fees, breach of clause 9 (Intellectual Property Rights) etc. Provided that the Aggrieved Party shall provide the Breaching Party with a written notice ("Notice") informing it of the occurrence of such breach and the Breaching Party fails or refuses to rectify the breach within a period of 7 days from the date of receipt of notice. The requirement of Notice shall be dispensed with if the breach is irremediable in nature.
- d. In the event of any termination, the ongoing College Connect Program shall be rendered to the students who had enrolled for the same prior to the termination of this Agreement. It is hereby clarified that the amounts paid by DAV prior to termination of this Agreement for availing the courses shall not be refunded under any circumstances.
- e. It is hereby agreed by the Parties that post termination of this Agreement for any reason, DAV shall cease to provide the College Connect Program, either under the same name or a different brand name using the materials of L&T EduTech, to the students, and return all data, information of L&T EduTech that it may have access to and communicate to the students that the College Connect Program will be no longer offered through DAV.

9. Confidentiality

- a. The Parties hereby agree that each Party may have access to Confidential Information of the other Party. Each of the Parties agrees that it shall keep confidential all the information disclosed by the other Party and will use the same only for the purposes of this Agreement.
- b. Each of the Parties also agrees that it shall not disclose to any person or entity any of the terms, conditions or other facts with respect to any such possible transaction including the status, which is confidential information without the consent of the other Party.
- c. For the purposes of this Agreement, Confidential Information shall mean any information provided by a Party to another Party under this Agreement, including but not limited to, financial, marketing, technical, IPR, design, customer/learner information (sourced by L&T EduTech / DAV) or other information of the disclosing party.
- d. The Parties also affirm that there shall not be any announcement made by either Party, till both Parties have approved the content of such an announcement.
- e. Nothing in the above clause prevents a Party from disclosing any Confidential Information:
 - (a) to its employees, legal advisors and other consultants on a need-to-know basis (provided the Party uses reasonable endeavors to ensure that the relevant person is aware that the information is confidential and does not further disclose the information except in accordance with this clause);

Annexure - COE

L&T EduTech shall set up a standard lab which will act as a Centre of Excellence for EV training and hands-on learning. The e-mobility lab will consist of two equipment sets namely, Lab equipment for Two-wheeler segment and Lab equipment for Electronics & Embedded.

Role of L&T EduTech

- After agreement sign-off, as per provided Commercials – Section 3(f), L&T EduTech shall commence the establishment of the CoE with standard lab facilities.
- To ensure the sustainability of this setup, L&T EduTech shall upskill two faculty members of the DAV in EV thereby enabling them to conduct experiments and maintain the EV requirements with proper care at the COE.
- Necessary lab manuals, experimental procedures and documentation shall be drafted for the trained faculty member to understand and work on the equipment.

Prerequisites from DAV

- With minimum area of 400 - 600 Sq. ft, fully furnished air-conditioned space to be allotted by the DAV for setting up of the EV lab. Lab should be provisioned with necessary power facilities, working tables and other furniture for placing the equipment.
- DAV to provide linkage with existing basic automotive, electrical & electronics lab support.
- DAV to provide access to existing computer design lab with primary software support.

Ownership and Maintenance of the CoE

1. After receiving the relevant milestone payment for the establishment of the CoE, L&T EduTech with support of its Technology Partner shall complete the setup in the DAV campus, in accordance with the payment terms specified in this agreement.
2. DAV shall be the rightful owner of the CoE equipment immediately upon the establishment of CoE in their premises.
3. For a period of three (3) years, L&T EduTech shall facilitate the servicing and repairing of the equipment through its Technology Partner for issues arising from defects in the equipment. L&T shall not be liable for repairs required due to damages caused by the DAV, including but not limited to mishandling, power supply fluctuations, accidental damage, unauthorized modifications, or failure to follow operational guidelines. Any repairs for these excluded issues will be the responsibility of the DAV.
4. After completion of three years, maintenance and upkeep of the equipment may be extended to the DAV by L&T EduTech on cost basis, with support of its TECHNOLOGY PARTNER, with mutual consent of both the parties.
5. Insurance – DAV will take adequate insurance coverage to protect the equipment from any loss or damage caused by Fire, Explosion, self-ignition, Accident, Theft and Burglary, Acts of Peril etc.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to certify that Dr. Keshav Walia, a Physics Department faculty member at DAV University located in Jalandhar, Punjab, India, has been engaged in collaborative research with me since July 2022. Together, we have delved into intricate issues ranging from developing novel generation techniques to exploring applications for Terahertz radiation in diverse fields.

Throughout our collaboration, Dr. Walia has demonstrated a profound understanding of theoretical concepts important in designing experiments at terahertz frequencies. I express my gratitude for Dr. Walia's unwavering commitment to our shared pursuit of scientific knowledge and innovation.
