Report:

A seminar titled "Ragging and Mental Health: Understanding the Impact and Prevention" was organized for students to raise awareness about the harmful effects of ragging on mental well-being. The event took place on 10th October 2018, and featured experts from the fields of psychology, law, and education. The speakers emphasized the emotional and psychological trauma caused by ragging, including anxiety, depression, and, in severe cases, suicidal tendencies. They also discussed preventive measures, such as the strict enforcement of anti-ragging laws, creating supportive campus environments, and encouraging students to report incidents without fear. The seminar concluded with an interactive Q&A session, where students were given practical advice on dealing with peer pressure and bullying. The event was well-received and served as an eye-opener for many, fostering a culture of empathy and respect among students.

Report: The seminar titled "Empowering Students: Promoting Zero Tolerance Policies on Ragging" was held on 17-11-2018, and aimed to address the critical issue of ragging in educational institutions. The event was organized for students across various departments. The seminar commenced with an overview of ragging, its detrimental effects on students, and the importance of implementing zero tolerance policies. The speakers emphasized the need for a proactive approach in combating ragging and highlighted the role of both students and faculty in creating a safe and supportive learning environment. Case studies were shared to illustrate the serious impact of ragging on victims' mental health and academic performance. Interactive sessions allowed students to discuss their concerns and ask questions about the measures their institutions could adopt to prevent ragging. The seminar concluded with a call to action, urging participants to advocate for stronger policies and support systems within their own institutions. Overall, the seminar successfully raised awareness and fostered a commitment among students to promote a zero-tolerance stance on ragging.
