Report: The seminar titled "Safe Spaces: Combating Sexual Harassment in Educational Institutions" was successfully organized for students on 04/03/2020. The event aimed to raise awareness about sexual harassment, its impact, and the measures that can be taken to create a safer environment within educational institutions. Distinguished speakers, including legal experts and social activists, shared insights on the legal framework governing sexual harassment in educational settings, highlighting important sections of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace Act (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal). The session emphasized the importance of creating safe spaces for students to report incidents without fear of retaliation. Interactive discussions and case studies were conducted to help students recognize harassment, understand their rights, and navigate the available support systems. A panel of professionals also addressed the role of institutional policies and the responsibility of authorities to ensure a secure and harassment-free learning environment. The seminar concluded with a Q&A session, where students raised concerns and received practical advice. Overall, the event was informative and empowering, promoting a strong message of zero tolerance toward harassment.

Report:

The seminar titled "The Hidden Costs of Ragging: Impact on Mental Health and Well-being" was held on 6th February 2020. The event aimed to shed light on the often-overlooked psychological and emotional effects of ragging. Dr. Rekha Gabha delivered an insightful keynote address. The presentation highlighted various dimensions of mental distress associated with ragging, including anxiety, depression, and post-traumatic stress. Case studies underscored the severe impact on victims' self-esteem and academic performance. The seminar also featured interactive sessions where participants discussed coping strategies and support systems. Attendees were encouraged to foster a culture of respect and inclusivity. The seminar concluded with a Q&A session, allowing students to seek advice and express their concerns. Overall, the event successfully raised awareness about the detrimental effects of ragging and emphasized the importance of creating a supportive campus environment.
