Empowering Students with 21st century Skills

Jalandhar - Pathankot, National Highway (NH 44), JALANDHAR- 144 012, Punjab

Name of the Event: Declamation event on “Dowry system in 21st century”

Date of the Event: 17th June, 2021

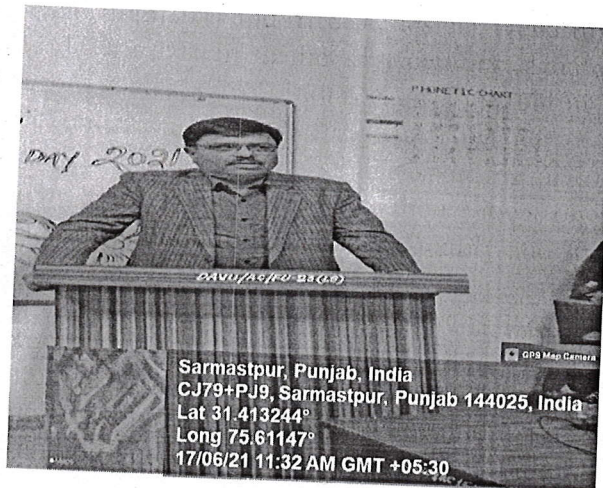

Club: Literary Club

Teacher Coordinator: Dr. Nakul Kundra

Number of Participants: 10

On June 17, 2021, the Literary Club of DAV University, Jalandhar, organized a declamation content for the students of M.A English (I and IIIrd Semester), Department of English with a focus on the critical issue of the dowry system in the 21st century. This declamation event brought together students from various states across India, each contributing their perspectives on this pressing social issue. The event featured compelling speeches, personal narratives, and thought-provoking discussions aimed at raising awareness and sparking dialogue about the detrimental effects of the dowry system. Participants expressed their views on how this tradition, which continues to impact many families, undermines gender equality and social justice.

Dr. R. K. Seth, the Dean of Academics, graced the occasion as the chief guest, offering insightful commentary on the need for cultural and social reforms. Dr. Seth was introduced by Dr. Nakul Kundra, Teacher Coordinator of the Literary Club, who emphasized the event's goal of addressing contemporary societal issues through the lens of language and expression. Dr. Seth underscored the importance of understanding and confronting deep-rooted cultural practices like the dowry system for the advancement of society. The event was a significant effort to engage students in meaningful discussions and promote social change.
