Report of Faculty Orientation Programme-2018

The Faculty Orientation Programme commenced with a structured schedule aimed at familiarizing faculty members with the institution's research vision, decision-making processes, and ethical standards.

The program started with the traditional DAV Gaan, followed by a ceremonial lamp lighting. Dr. R.K. Mahajan, the Vice Chancellor, addressed the new faculty members and emphasized the institution's commitment to research excellence. He discussed the strategic role of faculty in advancing the institution's research profile and outlined the expectations regarding research output and collaboration. Registrar, Dr. Sushma Arya delivered a concise address, focusing on institutional policies, administrative procedures, and the roles faculty members play in maintaining academic integrity and supporting institutional goals. Dr. K.N. Kaul presented a session on research ethics and integrity. Dean Academics, Dr. Desh Bandhu Gupta's session focused on decision-making in academia. He provided insights into the critical role of faculty in departmental and institutional decision-making processes, addressing how to handle challenges. Mr. Arvind Mahindru led an interactive session on building trust and credibility as a faculty member. The day concluded with a Q&A session, during which faculty members had the opportunity to clarify doubts, ask questions related to the day's presentations, and discuss key takeaways.

how faculty members can contribute to the development of departmental goals, resource allocation, and long-term planning to enhance academic output.

Dr. Rekha Gaba introduced the institutional code of conduct, explaining its significance for both faculty and students. A campus tour was arranged to familiarize the new faculty with the university's infrastructure, key facilities, research centers, and student services. The program concluded with closing remarks from the organizers. Faculty members were invited to provide feedback on the orientation program, sharing their experiences and suggestions for future improvements.

Report on Induction Programme-2018

An Induction program was conducted to welcome and guide newly admitted students at DAV University, Jalandhar. The event was structured with a series of activities aimed at introducing students to the university's values, academic expectations, and co-curricular opportunities. The program commenced with reporting by the newly admitted students. This was followed by a Havan Yajna, a traditional ritual seeking blessings for the students' academic journey. After Havan Yajna, Dr. R. K. Mahajan, Vice Chancellor, formally welcomed the students. Following this, Dr. R. K. Seth, Dean of Academics, delivered an insightful lecture on the university's code of conduct, emphasizing discipline and integrity.

Coordinator, and lecture by the NCC Coordinator both focusing on opportunities for students to participate in social service and national cadet activities.

There were three expert lectures on Day 2 of the induction programme. They enriched students on the topic of time management, entrepreneurship and life skills. The Induction program was well-organized, offering a comprehensive introduction to the university environment and encouraging active participation in both academic and extracurricular activities.
