Title: Conflict Resolution and Workplace Etiquette: Upholding the Code of Conduct

Date of Event: August 9, 2022

Venue: University Auditorium

As part of the Faculty Orientation Programme on August 9, 2022, DAV University organized a lecture titled "Conflict Resolution and Workplace Etiquette: Upholding the Code of Conduct". The session was delivered by Dr. Tejinder Kaur, a senior faculty member and expert in professional ethics, aimed at providing faculty members with practical insights into resolving conflicts in the workplace while adhering to the University's Code of Conduct.

Dr. Kaur's lecture emphasized the importance of maintaining professional behavior in the workplace and provided faculty members with strategies to handle conflicts in an effective, respectful, and ethical manner. The session also reinforced the critical role faculty members play in upholding the code of conduct, thereby fostering a positive and productive work environment.

Key Points Covered in the Lecture:

- Conflict Resolution Techniques: Dr. Kaur outlined different approaches to resolving conflicts in academic settings, including active listening, open communication, and mediation. She highlighted the need for patience and objectivity when handling disagreements among colleagues and with students.
- Workplace Etiquette: The session stressed the importance of maintaining decorum in interactions with peers, students, and administrative staff. Dr. Kaur discussed key aspects of professional conduct, such as punctuality, respect, and courteous communication.
- Adhering to the Code of Conduct: Dr. Kaur emphasized that maintaining ethical standards is essential for fostering a positive academic culture. Faculty members were reminded of their responsibility to serve as role models for students and to adhere strictly to the University's policies and regulations.
- Collaborative Work Culture: The lecture also touched upon the importance of fostering a collaborative and inclusive work environment, where conflicts are resolved constructively and all members of the academic community feel valued and respected.

Interactive Session:

Dr. Kaur engaged faculty members in an interactive session, where participants shared experiences of workplace conflicts and sought advice on handling such situations. Dr. Kaur

Title: University Code of Conduct for Teachers

Date of Event: Sep 3, 2021

Venue: University Auditorium

As part of the Faculty Induction Programme on September 3, 2021, DAV University organized a lecture to introduce new faculty members to the University Code of Conduct. The session was led by Dr. Rekha Gaba, who provided a detailed overview of the ethical responsibilities and professional expectations for faculty members at the university.

Dr. Gaba's lecture aimed to align the faculty with the values and standards that DAV University upholds, ensuring that educators contribute positively to the academic environment while adhering to institutional policies. The session covered essential elements of teaching ethics, student interactions, and institutional responsibilities.

Key points addressed during the lecture included:

- Ethical Teaching Practices: Dr. Gaba emphasized the importance of maintaining high ethical standards in teaching, including fairness in grading, transparency in classroom management, and the need for thorough preparation for lectures. She stressed that faculty must model ethical behavior for students.
- Faculty-Student Relations: The lecture highlighted the professional boundaries that must be maintained between faculty and students. Dr. Gaba urged faculty to foster an inclusive and respectful environment, free from discrimination or bias, ensuring equal opportunities for all students.
- Academic Integrity in Research: Faculty members were reminded of their responsibilities in conducting research ethically, avoiding plagiarism, and contributing to a culture of academic integrity. Dr. Gaba also emphasized the importance of guiding students in conducting honest research.
- Institutional Role: Dr. Gaba discussed the broader responsibilities of faculty within the institution, including participating in university governance, attending academic meetings, and contributing to university events. She also touched on the importance of upholding university policies and being role models for students.

During the interactive session, faculty members had the opportunity to ask questions about specific aspects of the Code of Conduct. Dr. Gaba addressed these concerns, reinforcing the idea that adherence to these guidelines ensures a productive and ethical academic environment for all.

Overview of the University Code of Conduct for Non-Teaching Staff

Date of Event: September 9, 2019

Venue: Conference Hall, Administrative Block

On September 9, 2019, DAV University held a lecture for non-teaching staff as part of an ongoing initiative to ensure adherence to the University's Code of Conduct. The session, titled "Overview of the University Code of Conduct," was delivered by Dr. Tejinder Kaur, who provided a comprehensive overview of the ethical standards, professional behavior, and responsibilities expected from the non-teaching staff.

The session aimed to foster a culture of discipline, accountability, and professionalism among the staff, highlighting the importance of maintaining a positive work environment.

Key Points Covered in the Lecture:

- Professional Behavior: Dr. Kaur emphasized the importance of respectful and courteous behavior towards colleagues, faculty, students, and visitors. She outlined how professionalism should be demonstrated in daily interactions and communication.
- Adherence to University Policies: The session detailed key policies related to punctuality, confidentiality, and use of university resources. Dr. Kaur stressed that adherence to these policies is essential for the smooth functioning of the institution.
- Workplace Conduct and Integrity: Dr. Kaur discussed the importance of integrity in performing duties, including the handling of sensitive information, proper documentation, and transparency in administrative tasks.
- Accountability: Staff members were reminded of their responsibilities in supporting the university's operations, ensuring timely and accurate execution of duties, and working collaboratively with other departments.

Interactive Discussion:

The session concluded with an open discussion, where non-teaching staff had the opportunity to raise questions regarding the Code of Conduct. Dr. Kaur addressed their concerns and provided clarifications on issues such as professional boundaries, handling conflicts, and confidentiality.

Conclusion:

The lecture was highly informative and provided essential guidance for the non-teaching staff on their role in maintaining a well-functioning and ethical work environment. Dr. Kaur's session reinforced the importance of professionalism, integrity, and accountability, which are critical to upholding the values of DAV University.

ANNUAL AWARENESS PROGRAMS ON CODE OF CONDUCT (2018-19)

Activity-1

Title: Overview of the University Code of Conduct

Date of Event: July 25, 2018

Venue: Seminar Hall

As part of the Student Orientation Programme on July 25, 2018, DAV University organized an informative session on the University's Code of Conduct to guide new students in understanding the ethical standards, discipline, and expectations during their time at the university.

The session was led by Dr. Desh Bandhu Gupta, Dean Academics, who delivered a comprehensive talk outlining the university's core values and policies that govern academic integrity, student behavior, and ethical responsibilities. The objective was to create awareness about the importance of adhering to these principles to maintain a harmonious and professional environment on campus.

During the talk, Dr. Gupta emphasized the following key points:

- Importance of maintaining academic honesty and preventing plagiarism.
- Guidelines on appropriate classroom behavior and respect towards faculty and peers.
- Responsibilities related to campus life, including rules on attendance, discipline, and participation in extracurricular activities.
- The role of students in upholding the university's values of respect, inclusivity, and integrity.

Students were highly engaged during the session, and Dr. Gupta also responded to queries regarding specific rules and consequences of misconduct. The session concluded with a reminder for students to review the detailed Code of Conduct booklet provided to them, as it would serve as a guideline throughout their academic journey.

The talk proved effective in setting a tone of discipline and respect for the academic and ethical environment of DAV University, marking a strong start to the orientation programme.

Title: University Code of Conduct for Teachers

Date of Event: July 10, 2018

Venue: Conference Hall, Administrative Block

On July 10, 2018, DAV University held a crucial session as part of the Faculty Orientation Programme, focusing on the University's Code of Conduct for teachers. The session, delivered by Dr. Rekha Gaba, aimed at familiarizing faculty members with their ethical obligations and responsibilities, both within the classroom and in their broader roles as educators and mentors.

Dr. Gaba's lecture covered key aspects of faculty conduct, emphasizing the role of faculty in upholding the integrity and standards of the university. The lecture provided a comprehensive guide to the expectations from faculty members and the importance of their behavior as role models for students.

Key topics covered in the lecture included:

- Professional Ethics and Integrity: Dr. Gaba emphasized the importance of maintaining academic integrity and honesty in research, teaching, and assessment. Faculty members were reminded of their role in promoting a culture of ethical scholarship.
- Student-Faculty Relations: Guidelines for maintaining professional boundaries with students were discussed. Dr. Gaba stressed the importance of fairness, transparency, and inclusivity in interactions with students, including the need to provide a supportive and non-discriminatory learning environment.
- Responsibilities in Teaching and Research: Faculty members were briefed on their responsibilities related to preparing and delivering lectures, assessing students objectively, and conducting research that adheres to ethical standards.
- Institutional Responsibility: Dr. Gaba highlighted the importance of contributing to the broader goals of the institution, including active participation in university governance, attending academic meetings, and upholding university policies.

The session concluded with an open discussion, where faculty members had the opportunity to raise questions about specific policies and practices. Dr. Gaba addressed these queries and reinforced the importance of ongoing self-evaluation and adherence to the code.

In her closing remarks, Dr. Gaba urged the faculty to lead by example and adhere strictly to the university's guidelines to maintain a positive academic environment. The session was instrumental in setting a high standard for ethical teaching practices and faculty conduct at DAV University.
